

AUGUST 2

An unsettling journey through the 20th century with KGB propagandist, Yuri Bezmenov.

Comrade Yuri is a 2024 documentary directed by Justin Malone that explores the life and warnings of Yuri Bezmenov, a former KGB propagandist who defected to the West in 1970. The film details his insights into Soviet subversion tactics, disinformation, and “active measures” used to destabilize free societies.

Comrade Yuri is the first-ever cinematic portrait of Soviet KGB defector Yuri Bezmenov’s life and legacy - uncovering the deceptive tactics used by global regimes to manipulate minds and destabilize societies.

This documentary is a haunting exploration of propaganda, psychological warfare, and one man’s courageous battle for truth.
